In reference to ordinance 2017-12 a business license runs from July 1 through June 30th. A business license packet will be mailed or e-mailed to you 30 days prior to renewal. Your business will need to file an annual net profits return with the city. If you have employees, there is a 1% withholding requirement on gross wages earned within the City of Hodgenville. Quarterly payroll returns are mailed with the business license packet and are to be filled out, and in each quarter.

The City of Hodgenville should be notified in writing of any changes in the nature of the business, ownership/management, address or termination of business.
